In Poca. Co. he was quite a prominent citizen. He was a member of the Va. Leg. from Poca., Co., one or more terms; a magistrate; county Assessor; and deputy Sheriff. Around 1840 he moved away to Lewis Co. near Tending Creek, then later to Burning Springs, West Co., and finally to Ravenswood, Jackson Co., W. Va. When settled there again became a prominent citizen, serving as deputy Sheriff, and also magistrate.
